

(Left to right) Andy and Donna Robins join Sue and Howard Winitsky at the recent ACS 200 gala held at Royal Palm Yacht and Country Club. The elegant evening of dinner and dancing raised more than $17,000 for local programs implemented by the South Palm Beach County Unit of the organization.

Spring ACS 200 gala a huge success

BOCA RATON — Guests and members of the recent ACS 200 gala, an exclusive annual event hosted by the American Cancer Society, raised more than $17,000 for local programs implemented by the South Palm Beach County Unit of the organization.

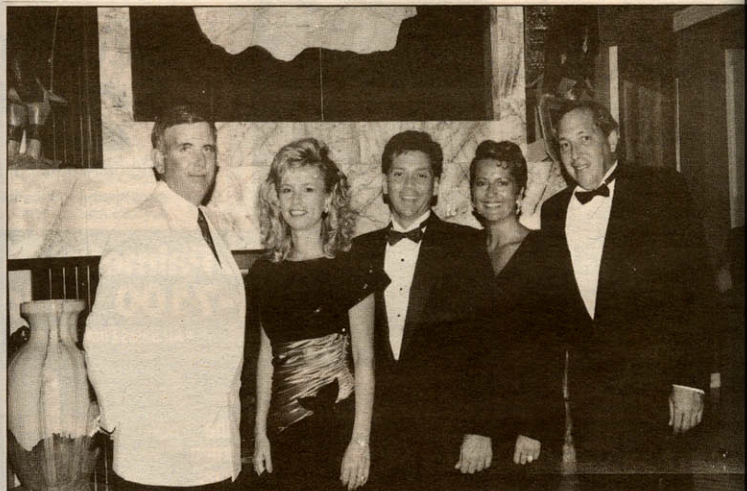

The elegant evening of dinner and dancing was held at the magnificent luxury home, "Somerset," in Royal Palm Yacht and Country Club. "Somerset," designed and built by Sam Caliendo, is a magnificent tri-level home set on a scenic Intracoastal Waterway site.

Chairwoman Renee Weil welcomed guests who included Nat and Jane West; ACS Unit President Dr. Lee Porterfield and his

Please see ACS, page 25

The doctors sharing a light moment at the recent ACS 200 Gala are (left to right) Drs. David Owen, Allen Dinnerstein, Allen Zelcer and Robert Gould.

(Left to right) Skip Stoltz and Kim Schlinck join builder Sam Caliendo, and Renee and Randy Weil during the American Cancer Society's prestigious ACS 200 gala held at Caliendo's "Somerset" at the Royal Palm Yacht and Country Club in Boca Raton.