

ROYAL PALM ESTATE GALA

Sam and Dianne Caliendo opened their magnificent Royal Palm Yacht and Country Club estate to a select group of guests who are planning to reserve ringside tables and help underwrite the costs of the "Flight into Fantasy" New Years Eve event of the American Red Cross. The guests toured the elegant Intracoastal estate and were treated to music and a sumptuous buffet courtesy of Edie and Anthony Comporato, Honorary Chairpersons for the event and neighbors of the Calindos.

The decor and the architecture of the $5 million dollar waterfront estate brought an enthusiastic response from all the guests.

The Committee for the New Year's Eve event urge all local organizations to join hands with the Red Cross by reserving a table for its members. Individual tickets at $200 per person can be reserved as well by calling the Red Cross office at 368-6622.

Planning the American Red Cross New Year's Eve event are Michael and Dianne Glennie, Edith Comporato, Diane Caliendo, Anthony Comporato, and Sam Caliendo.
